

Here's What Master Select™ Contractors Are Saying...

"GAF is truly one of the world class leaders within the roofing industry. From top to bottom, they are extremely contractor-oriented and understand the daily obstacles associated with the contracting side of the roofing business. Further, GAF's focus on providing value is quite evident in the numerous value-added tools made available to the roofing contractor. Thank you to the entire GAF Team for stepping up to the plate – the partnership is truly a win-win."

"GAF's Master Select™ Contractor Program remains committed to providing companies such as Best Roofing And Waterproofing with a continuous supply of new tools and services for use in building our business. We are proud of our Master Select™ status and especially the Master 10 program. Our craftsmen take great pride in being rated 10 on their projects and we look forward to continuing to grow our company as a member of the GAF team."

"We at R&R Industries genuinely appreciate the help and support from GAF— especially in the hectic market conditions due to the hurricanes. GAF truly supports their Master Select™ Contractors and has provided us with tools and programs that have helped us build our business. We are proud of our Master Select™ status and extremely happy with our relationship with GAF."

"We appreciate GAF's support and commitment to their Master Select™ Contractors. The Master Select™ Contractor program has provided us an edge in the marketplace because it tells our customers that GAF recognizes Allweather as one of the area's top contractors. We feel that a strong relationship with a quality manufacturer like GAF helps Allweather Roof provide a great value for our customers – which is what it's all about."
