Transferability; Remedy for New Owner

This limited warranty may not be transferred or assigned, directly or indirectly, except for one transfer as follows:

- Coverage will be automatically extended to only the second owner of the property.
- If the transfer takes place within the first two years, the second owner shall be entitled to all benefits contained in this limited warranty.
- If the transfer takes place after the first two years, the length of this limited warranty shall be reduced to the one-year period after ownership changes (but in no event longer than the original warranty term).

What Is Covered/Sole and Exclusive Remedy

All warranty coverage is subject to the exclusions set forth in the section entitled “Limitations on Coverage.”

Manufacturing Defects

During the warranty term specified above, for any Fan that does not perform properly as a result of a manufacturing defect, as determined by GAF,

GAF will provide you with replacement part(s) or a replacement Fan. Decisions as to the provision of replacement part(s) or a replacement Fan will be made solely by GAF. If your claim arises during the Labor Protection Plus Period, GAF will also reimburse you for the reasonable costs to remove the defective part(s) or Fan and reinstall the replacement part(s) or replacement Fan, but NOT to exceed the original retail price of the product. The remedy under this limited warranty is available only for those Fans exhibiting defects at the time your claim is evaluated by GAF. Any replacement part(s) or Fans, as well as any remaining Fans on your roof, will be warranted only for the remainder of the original warranty term.

Limitations on Coverage

Even if your Fan was not properly installed according to GAF’s published application instructions, this limited warranty remains in effect if your Fan fails to perform as a result of a manufacturing defect. However, GAF will NOT compensate you for:

- Damage from anything other than an inherent manufacturing defect in your Fan, such as:
 - improper installation of your Fan, faulty application, or application not in strict accordance with GAF’s published application instructions.
 - settlement, movement, or defects in the building, walls, foundation, roof deck, or materials adjacent to or over which the Fan was installed.
- Damage to your Fan or leaking into your building resulting from factors beyond GAF’s control, including, but not limited to:
 - acts of nature, such as hail, storms, or winds.
 - improper storage or handling of your Fan.
- Damage resulting from the application of overlying or adjacent roofing materials.
- Damage resulting from mold growth or condensation.
- Chipping, fading, or peeling paint on your Fan.
- Labor costs for removing or replacing your Fan except as specifically provided for above or for any other roofing or building materials.

Note: Some jurisdictions do not allow limitations on or the exclusion of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction.

Note: The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall NOT apply either to the sale of the Fan or to this limited warranty.
